Week 9 — Explicit, Implicit, Theme and Purpose

Unit 3: Meaning, Comparison and Other Subjects · Month 3 · Quarter 1 · Semester 1 · Instructional Days 41–45

Essential question	How do you get from what a text says to what it is for?
Standards	Explicit and Implicit Meaning, Theme and Purpose -> RL.11-12.2 Reading: Literature — Determine two or more themes or central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to produce a complex account; provide an objective summary of the text. RL.11-12.3 Reading: Literature — Analyze the impact of the author's choices regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed). Literal and Figurative Comprehension -> RI.11-12.10, RI.11-12.2, RI.11-12.4, RL.11-12.4 — 4 standards; full text in the standards table
Learning target	"I can move from stated meaning to theme and purpose with evidence at each step."
Local dates	_____ (enter your school dates)

Measurable objectives

- Students will analyze a text's explicit and implicit meanings to make inferences about its theme and determine the author's purpose.
- Students will read and comprehend a variety of literary texts to develop a literal and figurative understanding.

Success criteria (student-friendly)

- "I separate what a text states from what it implies."
- "I state a theme as a claim, not a topic."
- "I distinguish the author's purpose from the text's theme."

Academic vocabulary

explicit, implicit, inference, theme, topic, purpose, evidence, warrant

Materials and technology

- Texts the department supplies
- Notebooks
- Paper and pencil

Differentiation and supports

Support area	This week's plan
Special education / IEP	Reduce group size; pair visual cue cards with all verbal directions; allow gesture or picture response in place of speech; pre-teach the week's target in a 1:1 warm-up.
Section 504	Provide the child's documented accommodations throughout; permit movement breaks and alternative seating at any point in the sequence.

Support area	This week's plan
Multilingual learners	Introduce each vocabulary word with an object or image; accept home-language responses; send the vocabulary list home where a translation is available; pair with a peer who shares the home language.
Advanced / extension	Ask the learner to teach the skill to a peer, extend the task, or record a demonstration for the class reference wall.
Intervention / reteach	Reteach the target in a short small group using the same materials; split the day's check for understanding into two smaller steps.
Enrichment	Extend into an open-ended centre or project connected to the essential question.

Assessment and evidence

A theme stated as a claim and traced to explicit evidence.

Family communication

Ask your child the difference between what a story is about and what it says.

Day 41 — Stated and Implied, Kept Apart

Week 9, Day 1 · Unit 3 · Standards: RL.11-12.2, RL.11-12.3, RI.11-12.10, RI.11-12.2, RI.11-12.4, RL.11-12.4

Focus	The two meanings.
Learning target	"I can move from stated meaning to theme and purpose with evidence at each step."
Vocabulary in use	explicit, implicit, inference, theme, topic, purpose, evidence, warrant
Local date	_____

Learning sequence

Connect: this week's standard. Teach: that explicit meaning is recoverable by quotation and implicit meaning by inference, and that the discipline is keeping the two in separate columns - because an inference presented as a quotation is the commonest form of misreading and the hardest to argue with. Teach that this standard is unchanged from Grade 11, so the progression is in the difficulty of the text and in working alone. Try: shared two-column work on a supplied passage. Apply: students complete both columns for a second. Reflect: which column was longer, and should it have been?

Check for understanding

Student separates explicit statements from inferences with evidence for each.

Differentiation in the moment

If the learner...	Then...
needs more support	Model the step again with guided support, then fade to a gesture cue.
is ready for more	Invite the learner to demonstrate for a peer or add a second example.
is dysregulated	Pause instruction, move to co-regulation, and return to the target later.

Closure and reflection

Gather the group. Restate the learning target. Ask one learner to demonstrate. Name one specific thing the group did well, then preview tomorrow.

Teacher reflection (fictional example)

Fictional Example — Customize and Verify Before School Submission.

Most learners met the target. Two needed the visual cue repeated during guided practice; I will pre-teach with them tomorrow. The extension held attention longer than planned, so I shortened closure.

Day 42 — An Inference Has to Be Earned

Week 9, Day 2 · Unit 3 · Standards: RL.11-12.2, RL.11-12.3, RI.11-12.10, RI.11-12.2, RI.11-12.4, RL.11-12.4

Focus	Discipline.
Learning target	"I can move from stated meaning to theme and purpose with evidence at each step."
Vocabulary in use	explicit, implicit, inference, theme, topic, purpose, evidence, warrant
Local date	_____

Learning sequence

Connect: the implicit column. Teach: that an inference is a claim with a chain - this evidence, plus this reasonable assumption, gives this conclusion - and that a reader must be able to state the assumption. Teach the test: could a careful reader who knows the text deny your inference? If not, it is a paraphrase; if easily, the chain is too long. Try: shared chain-building. Apply: students state an inference with its chain. Reflect: where is your chain weakest?

Check for understanding

Student states an inference with its evidence and assumption.

Day 43 — Theme Is a Claim, Not a Topic

Week 9, Day 3 · Unit 3 · Standards: RL.11-12.2, RL.11-12.3, RI.11-12.10, RI.11-12.2, RI.11-12.4, RL.11-12.4

Focus	The distinction that matters.
Learning target	"I can move from stated meaning to theme and purpose with evidence at each step."
Vocabulary in use	explicit, implicit, inference, theme, topic, purpose, evidence, warrant
Local date	_____

Learning sequence

Connect: inferences. Teach: that 'loyalty' is a topic and 'loyalty survives only where it costs something' is a theme; that a theme must be a SENTENCE, arguable, and supportable from the text; and that a theme expressed as a single noun cannot be argued about at all. Teach that a theme is the TEXT'S claim rather than a moral the reader approves of. Try: shared conversion of topics into themes. Apply: students state a theme as a full sentence and cite two supports. Reflect: could somebody disagree with your theme?

Check for understanding

Student states a theme as an arguable sentence with textual support.

Differentiation in the moment

needs more support	Model the step again with guided support, then fade to a gesture cue.
is ready for more	Invite the learner to demonstrate for a peer or add a second example.

Day 44 — Purpose Is the Author's, Not the Text's

Week 9, Day 4 • Unit 3 • Standards: RL.11-12.2, RL.11-12.3, RI.11-12.10, RI.11-12.2, RI.11-12.4, RL.11-12.4

Focus	The second half.
Learning target	"I can move from stated meaning to theme and purpose with evidence at each step."
Vocabulary in use	explicit, implicit, inference, theme, topic, purpose, evidence, warrant
Local date	_____

Learning sequence

Connect: theme. Teach: are different - theme is what the text argues, purpose is what the writer was doing by writing it, and the evidence for purpose includes form, occasion and audience as well as content. Teach the honest limit: purpose is a reconstruction, so it is stated with confidence proportionate to the evidence. Try: shared purpose-finding. Apply: students state a purpose and rate their own confidence with reasons. Reflect: what evidence would raise your confidence?

Check for understanding

Student states an authorial purpose with evidence and calibrated confidence.

Differentiation in the moment

Day 45 — When Theme and Purpose Pull Apart

Week 9, Day 5 · Unit 3 · Standards: RL.11-12.2, RL.11-12.3, RI.11-12.10, RI.11-12.2, RI.11-12.4, RL.11-12.4

Focus	The interesting case.
Learning target	"I can move from stated meaning to theme and purpose with evidence at each step."
Vocabulary in use	explicit, implicit, inference, theme, topic, purpose, evidence, warrant
Local date	_____

Learning sequence

Connect: both. Teach: that the two can diverge - a text whose argument exceeds or undercuts what its author appears to have intended, which is common in older writing and is not a fault in the reader. Teach how to write about it without claiming to know a mind: describe what the text does and what its occasion suggests, and leave the gap visible. Try: shared discussion of a supplied case. Apply: students write a paragraph on a text where the two diverge. Reflect: is a text allowed to mean more than its author meant?

Check for understanding

Student writes about a gap between theme and apparent purpose.

Differentiation in the moment

needs more support	Model the step again with guided support, then fade to a gesture cue.
is ready for more	Invite the learner to demonstrate for a peer or add a second example.
